WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION :

'Cutting 101' is an interactive workshop where parents will have a hands-on opportunity to try activities, ask questions and share experiences.

In this workshop, participants will:

- Learn about the pyramid of learning.
- Learn the different stages of cutting.
- Better understand the underlying skills required to cut effectively with scissors.
- Try fun activities that work on these underlying skills.
- Make their own starter cutting box that they can take home with them.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION :

- This workshop is open to parents, teachers, and educators wondering how to introduce cutting to children. Adults working with special needs children will also benefit from this workshop.
- Free daycare available: reservation by phone is necessary.
- Snacks and drinks will be provided.
- If a contribution is made, receipts are available for tax and insurance purposes.
